 High School

Brandon Bigelow expresses his point of view in a logical manner (left), while Matt Flaherty and Mike LeDoux debate on Brandon's right to speak (below).

Michelle Aasrud, Pauline Burke, and Scott Gordon show their eagerness about the upcoming year (below). Seniors Erica Rodriguez, Patty Cabral, and Kelly Dutcher (center right).

Senior leaders prepare to brainstorm.

Something Different

Dear Flyer,

Our years here at Framingham South have been filled with many memories. Although we move on with our lives, high school will always remain a vivid memory. When we think of South, we think of our Flyer Pride and our South Spirit that follow us wherever we go. The class of 1990 is the class with class; we are Something Different. As seniors in high school we are completing one phase of our lives and beginning another. However, we have left our mark at South

High; we have started new traditions and broken others. We hope to be remembered as a special class, a class with spirit. This is our time: a time to make the most of what we have learned here at South High and to remember what made our years here so special. Memories last forever, and we hope that the yearbook rekindles some of these treasured times that we have shared.

Love,
The Flyer Spirit

SOMETHING ORDINARY

A Typical Day!

A typical day at South High starts at 7:50 in the morning. Kristin Keating, Student Government President, greets us with the morning announcements. The day continues with classes, studies in the caf, and the best part of the day: lunch! Whether it is first, second, or third lunch, there is always someone to sit and talk to and to chow with.

Paula Marchetti and Corrie Masterson smile pretty for the camera!

A feeling of restlessness comes over students after lunch. For the long-awaited 2:00 is right around the corner! After school can be more exciting than school itself! Whether you hang out in the parking lot, attend a meeting, go to rehearsal, or go to practice, everyone is there. South High students pride themselves in being involved in all aspects of high school life.

SENIORS riding the bus?

FLYER RALLIES

Something Traditional

It is Friday, period six. The small red hand on the clock ticks slowly as anticipation builds. Finally Mr. Flaherty's voice comes on over the P.A. announcing that it is time for all classes to report to the gym. The band plays and another Flyer rally is underway!

Senior Nicole White hits her ending pose.

The traditional Fall Sports and Thanksgiving Rallies set the stage for our famous Flyer spirit! The cheerleaders cheer, the Pom Poms dance, and the band and color guard perform flawlessly. Everyone is decked out in blue and white, and the gymnasium is covered with posters and signs of encouragement to South teams. Mr. Flaherty talks about Flyer spirit, and the crowd goes wild!

Some of the Senior guys display their pride at an away game (right), while (below) some others show their pride at a home game.

SOMETHING SPECTACULAR

Framingham South High

What is so spectacular about Framingham South High? We make it spectacular. We students at South have a positive attitude about everything we do. Classes are only one part of the South High scene. Sports, clubs, musical and dramatic performances, and community service activities all contribute to an active and involved student body. Students are always willing to help out in the school or community. We care about our school and carry the Flyer name with pride. We make things happen!

Katrina Garret, Nicole White, Becca Hanna, Melissa Goldman, and Robyn Joyce get it together at a leadership breakfast.

FLYER SPIRIT

It's Something!

Spirit ... From football games      Football season brings out Flyer and rallies to club activities and      Spirit in all students and South academics, South High is filled      High alumni. The Fleagle enter-with enthusiastic students. Flyers      tains the crowd on the sidelines have pride in their school and its      and Dave never misses a game.
activities. As the cheerleaders      Flyer spirit is infectious, and it hits chant "We've got spirit!", the      everyone, faculty included. We crowd shouts back in agreement.      feel the excitement, especially No matter what sport it is, no mat-      during Spirit Week. It just goes to ter if we win or lose, we have pride      show that South High has more in ourselves and in the Blue and      liveliness and enthusiasm than White.      anyone else!

The Cheerleaders, Pom Poms, and Color Guard help cheer the Flyers to victory!

Erica Rodriguez and the Fleagle stop to smile for the camera!

Dave, our biggest fan, is all decked out in South gear.

SOMETHING SPECIAL

Seniors Rank First!

Well, we're seniors! We've come a long way since September 1986. We've had good times and bad times, but we've been together through it all. We've shared many memories and become a part of each other's lives.

As we leave our familiar halls of South High and move on with our future, we'll look back on these past four years and smile. For we'll remember that we were the class with class, the class that was something special: the class of 1990.

Kristin McAuley fills out her college data sheet during lunch.

Angel Cruzado grabs Gillian Berkowitz for a quick hug.

Friendly Seniors John Batista and Scott Gordon help a freshman adjust to high school life.

Buddies Brandon Greenstein and Rob English give the play "Hyde Park" two thumbs up!

... 9a
Every Way!

To the Class of 1990:

Congratulations on all you have achieved at South High School. We have been very proud of you and what you have accomplished.

Remember how necessary it is to return what you have been given, and no matter where you settle, become part of that community and assist all in reaching their goals as much as you are able.

As you look through the pages of this yearbook remember that your education will continue throughout your life. We will always be available at South High School to assist you. We wish you continued success and good luck.

CLASS OF 1990

To Class of '90,

With the closing of another chapter in the book of our lives let us take this time to reminisce on our past four years here at South. South has been a rewarding experience for all of us. Our class has grown in so many ways, emotionally and educationally. Through hard work and dedication we have achieved and succeeded time after time, proving that we can pull together and overcome any obstacle.

Soon we will have the opportunity to use the knowledge we have gained, for tomorrow we enter a new phase of life. WE will never forget the friends and memories that have made an imprint on our lives. Now we move on to fill the blank pages that lie ahead with new hopes and aspirations. Best of luck to the Class of 1990!!

IN MEMORIAM

CHRISTOPHER J.
DUFFY

October 15, 1971
— April 25, 1988

CHRIS AND ALFIE

In my dreams he'll never change.
In my life he still remains.

In too short a time he was gone.
But in my mind he still lives on.

All the hurt and all the pain.
Someday . . . We will meet again.

Stephanie Gardner

Although I am dead now, I am not really gone.
We thought I'd always be with you, but maybe we were wrong.
I know that you are sad, but you I'm not in pain.
Everything is alright now, although nothing can be the same.
Well, I've had my time and you've still got yours.
And you know that time will mend your sores.
So just hang on, you'll be alright.
I'll always be with you — Day and Night.
I'll be there in the morning — the bird outside your door.
Then you'll hear me singing, and soon you'll cry no more.
I love you and I know that you loved me
But this is just the way God wanted things to be.

Janeen Molan

JASON PAUL O'DOCHARTY

SCHOOL DAY MEMORIES

As we reach out our hand
The diploma we grasp,
While we think of the memories
Of the years in the past.
Tears fill our eyes
Because it's all gone,
We're starting a new life,
We have to move on.
We hope friends will keep in touch
As the years pass us by,
Although it hurts inside
We'll try not to cry.
We think of kindergarten
And our first day,
Now we've reached the end
We are going away.
How do you say good-by
To friends who mean so much?
Will there be time
To sincerely keep in touch?
You'll always have the memories
Of your school years from day one,
Don't think of school ending —
Think a new life has begun.

In Appreciation . . .

The faculty and administration here at Framingham South is fantastic! Not only do they provide the students with a solid academic foundation, but also they participate in activities. Some teachers even dressed up for Spirit Week!

The teachers often spend many hours at South helping students long after the bell has rung at 2:00. For example, most of the educators are involved in coaching sports or advising clubs.

Any way you look at it, the faculty and administration display a deep commitment to the students and aid in realizing their full potential. The Class of 1990 thanks each and every one of them.

Farewell Retirees . . .

"These are ten . . ." Mr. Barreira always begins saying as he passes out his quiz. He never finishes. ". . . of the Easiest Questions I Could Possibly Find," the class recites in unison. You can hear the capital letters. It's tradition, just like seeing Mr. Barreira standing outside of his classroom door talking to students. Mr. Barreira is much more than a teacher and a trainer . . . he's a good friend. As Mr. Barreira retires this year to pursue a professional career in Kabuna ball on the South 40 of his ranch, we say good luck, and thanks . . . you are the best.

Although Mrs. Baldwin and Mrs. Goodman have their own specialties — Mrs. Baldwin, British Literature and Mrs. Goodman, American Literature — this "dynamic duo" is known to countless students as the teachers who have taught them how to write clear and polished prose.

Walking down the halls near the cafeteria on any given day, one could count on the delicious aromas emanating from Mrs. Driscoll's cooking classes. During her more than twenty years at South, Mrs. Driscoll taught students how to cook and sew — important skills required before a student can become truly independent. For this teaching, we thank her.

With a ready wit and a love for language, Madame Berthiaume guided the Foreign Language department for many years before her retirement midway through this year. Mme. Berthiaume loves France and all things French, and she communicated this love to her students. Patient in the face of our linguistic ignorance, Mme. Berthiaume always encouraged her students to try. "I think you can," she would say; and more often than not, she was right. It only took a little time, and a little help from a teacher who knew we could.

Using their own "box" system, Mrs. Baldwin and Mrs. Goodman have helped students to organize their thoughts in a logical manner. We are grateful to them for their dedicated and intense teaching. We give them an A/A.

To Sandy Nigberg we leave a day without a problem and a full day in school without a tardy.
 To Jon Nichols we leave A.P. gym, a car he doesn't have, and absences.
 To Kevin Norton we leave one perfect day and a joke.
 To Tom O'Halloran we leave D.J. equipment.
 To Mike O'Neil we leave a mail truck and a party his parents don't know about.
 To Domingo Ortiz we leave a new pair of shocks.
 To Derek Perry we leave a Mustang LX 5.0.
 To Lauren Poretsky we leave a stable man.
 To Sue Powell we leave friends her own age, an animal farm, and a long-lasting friendship with DeDe Matos.
 To Heather Read we leave some hay, sugar cubes, and an animal farm.
 To Erin Regan we leave a guy without a broken heart.
 To Erica Rodriguez we leave a day without complaining and freedom.
 To Judy Rosa we leave a Heavy Metal concert shirt with a pair of jeans.
 To Lisa Rothstein we leave Irish ancestors, something she doesn't want, driving school, and the class of 1988.
 To Sharon Samuels we leave a coupon.
 To Tania Schafer we leave a second set of hands for those afternoon massages and a lifetime lift ticket.
 To Rebecca Shorton we leave a ticket to the Kiss Concert, a bucket, and the Sybil Award.
 To Michelle Simpson we leave a time and a place.
 To Dana Sock we leave an animal farm.
 To Jason Stahl we leave studying for Mr. Engvall's class.
 To Dana Tesorero we leave $700.
 To Meg Tivnan we leave a case of lipstick, her wish to be best-dressed, and a yellow convertible Corvette.
 To Chad Thompson we leave a Pooh Bear.
 To Stella Tsiros we leave the mystery of Biffy!!!
 To Sheri Tuck we leave a new car and a room full of "Obsession" for men.
 To Kenny Turner we leave Kate Garbarino.
 To Rachel Veron we leave laughter and a weekend at home.
 To Rich Vetstein we leave "9 ½ weeks".
 To Henry Vuong we leave a complete physics lab.
 To Alexis Walkenstein we leave Broadway.
 To Rachael Wheeler we leave four steps to catch up.
 To Nicole White we leave a time and a place.
 To Kevin Wilkie we leave a smile.
 To Jen Wilson we leave an assigned friend to walk down the hall with and a long-lasting relationship.
 To Robyn Witten we leave a pocket in her jacket for Mindy.
 To Sloan Wood we leave a normal voice, a picture she's not in, and a monogamous relationship.

To Denise Zorovic we leave a superlative senior and Andre Agassi.
 To Mr. Barbieri we leave all our respect.
 To the class officers we leave a meeting in the hall.
 To Mrs. Duffy we leave yearbook editors who can agree.
 To Mr. Barreira we leave the Kabuna Ball Championship and best of luck.
 To all our teachers, secretaries, and guidance counselors we leave thanks.
 To the sophomore girls we leave good reputations.
 To the senior girls we leave older boyfriends.
 To Mrs. Esposito we leave a bunch of yahoos, cookies, and "Moe."
 To Miss Satlak we leave a day off and an on-time homeroom.
 To Pom Pom we leave fun practice.
 To the freshman class we leave growth spurts.
 To the cheerleaders we leave real smiles.
 To Dr. Diggs we leave the California raisin.
 To the swim team we leave a miracle.
 To Mr. Soisson we leave a dozen doughnuts, an A.P. Physics class that does its homework and passes in their labs on time.
 To the football team we leave the Super Bowl and a great season.
 To Mrs. Walker we leave a full candy jar and stress.
 To the custodians (especially Kevin) we leave thanks for all the favors.
 To the junior girls we leave natural hair color, lives, cages, Mac Donalds, smaller egos, magic markers, real parties, and the junior guys.
 To the junior guys we leave originality and the Class of 1989.
 To the class of 1990 we leave long-lasting friendship, a never-ending party, and success.
 To Mr. Pappas we leave "Best Dressed" and a perm.
 To Mr. James we leave a Senior A.P. English Class that read Moby Dick.
 To Mr. Quinn we leave new roller skates.
 To the senior guys we leave lunch money.
 To Ms. Booth we leave a quiz that does not need retaking.
 To Mr. Dunne we leave S.T.P.
 To "Mom" Makynen we leave appreciation for all her help.
 To Mr. Engvall we leave a detention, gum, and a "get to the board!"
 To Mrs. Rubeski we leave a full senior class.
 To Mrs. Van Dorsten we leave a handbook from Mrs. Baldwin and Mrs. Goodman.
 To Mrs. Figueroa we leave Italy.
 To Mr. Flaherty we leave a "thank you" for four wonderful years under his supervision — Thanks from the Class of 1990.

Early Childhood Development

South Students in Cathy Lightbody's Early Childhood Education classes have a unique opportunity to work with four year-olds in Project Blocks. In a laboratory atmosphere the students learn to prepare lessons and activities that promote the emotional, social, physical and intellectual development of the toddlers. Helping Director Rosario Alvarez and teachers Donna Skinnion and Rita Agostinelli, South High students enjoy hands on training. As these pictures show, the teenagers learn as much as they teach. This project is extremely beneficial to everyone.

HAWAIIAN DAY

January 31, 1990

On this dull, dreary Wednesday the senior class added a ray of sunshine to South when they paraded into school in their summer apparel. People were seen wearing anything from shorts, t-shirts, and sunglasses to hula skirts and leis. The energy level of the seniors was high, for if they could not have a snow day they could at least wish for the beach and sun.

Christmas Project

Each year the Christmas Project helps provide needy families with everything from toys to blankets and clothing. Coordinated by James Quinn and National Honor Society, the projects succeeded in aiding about one-hundred seventy families.

Many students participated in this charitable event. While listening to the radio blasting, they wrapped and wrapped . . . and wrapped. Overall, the project showed everyone what the holiday season is really all about.

SPRIT WEEK

Throughout the week of October 16-20, the halls of South High rang with Flyer spirit. Each day had its own theme: Senior — Freshman Day, Pajama and Teddy Bear Day, 50's/60's Day, College/Pro Day, and Blue and White Day. In addition, the school was decorated with an array of signs, streamers, and balloons to add the coup de gras. The week showed the students' as well as the faculty's support to the teams and the squads and the school's ability to work together for common cause.

Something Scary

Doctor Animal is forever prepared! (left). Below is Lauren O'Neill as Beatle Juice.

Walking down the hall this Halloween was a frightful experience. The freshmen, sophomores and juniors were normal, but the supposedly most mature class here at South, the Seniors, could not be recognized. The Flyer tradition of Senior Dress Up Day was in full effect! There were clowns, witches, M&M's, and the Coneheads. Dorothy and her friends paid a visit to South on the way to the Emerald City in The Land of OZ.

Seniors really got into the spirit of the day, dressing up in outrageous costumes. Even Mrs. Shapiro showed her true desire in life — to be a Lacrosse player! Lunch was definitely chaotic to say the least. Seniors scrambled from the Cafe to the auditorium to take part in the Costume Contest. Although some were bashful, just about everyone was entered in the contest with the help of our master of ceremony, Mr. Zaido. The winners were: Alexis Walkenstein, who was all decked up as a Christmas Tree, Andrew Beckman, who sported his Captain Six-pack gear, and the "Disco Dudes", Jeff Donovan, Matt Brown, and Eric Goldshmidt.

CONTEST WINNERS

SATURDAY NIGHT FEVER and all the new BEE GEES!

As the senior class marched across the stage in their Halloween attire, a panel of elite judges began the decision making process. A big prize was at stake, a free yearbook. This may seem trivial, but as the year goes on seniors forget how to save money (too much partying). The judges were indecisive for quite some time, for the choices were numerous. The costumes ranged from gum and M&M's to the Wizard of Oz to the Cone Heads. However, everyone knew that only a few could win, one male, one female, and one group. Those that triumphed were (clockwise): Matt Brown, Jeff Donovan, Eric Goldschmidt, Mike Janes (not a contest winner), Mike Beckman, and Alexis Walenstein.

Senior Toga Dance

October 28, 1989

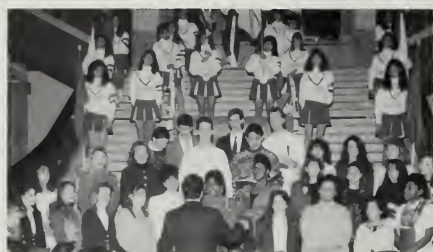

The Senior Halloween Dance is a great tradition here at Framingham South High. This year we broke the rules a bit by making it Toga because Halloween came after the dance. We all dressed in our sheets and wreaths of leaves which left plenty of room for being creative (and some people definitely were).

Nevertheless, it was a fun night and there was plenty to do. Of course by the end of the night everyone's sheets were falling and most of us ended up in shorts and T-shirts, but it was much easier to dance!

WINTER MUSIC CONCERTS

Every year, the South High Music Department, led by George Perrone, sponsors two winter music concerts. The first, usually in mid-December, is held at the Statehouse. The orchestra and madrigal have been commended for their great performances there many times. The second is performed at Christmas time. At this concert, students are allowed to display their talents in creative and imaginative performances with both singing and dancing.

G R E A S E

Grease was the word in this year's fall musical! Mr. Sosny once again directed a fabulous production. There were dancing high school students, poodle skirts, sideburns, and a lot of fun! Grease definitely started this year off on the right foot!

The memories of Brighton Beach Memoirs will live on! A small dedicated group of F.S.H.S. students were able to test their true acting ability in this production.

It was a success! There were both laughter and tears. The Jerome family kept us on the edge of our seats. This show deserved a thumbs up!

The Girls' Varsity soccer team had a great season this year! They only missed the state tournament by 2 points. What a disappointment! They came back from a slow start and with the help of a few additions midway through the season, they ended up with an excellent second half. This was a superb group of kids who were not only teammates, but also great friends!

The South Boys Varsity Soccer team finished its season with its best performance in school history. Led by Co-Captains, Rich Vetstein and Jon Nichols, South qualified for the state tournament for the second time in three years. The varsity team ended the season with a record of 11-6-4.

This is the first year that Framingham South has had an official Girls' Cross-Country team. It was lead by captain Jessica Binder. Along with her teammates, they had a very successful season. Unfortunately, this was Coach Daniels last season and they wish him the best of luck.

The Cross Country team has had its most successful season since 1981. In a league often dominated by the same few teams, South managed to stay right in the thick of things, meet after meet.

With Coach Daniels retiring after 18 years of quality coaching, the team has lost one of its greatest assets. Future team prospects look good with a lot of hard work.

1989 was a year of people. We began the year by welcoming President George Bush (top left) and Vice-President Dan Quayle (below left) into office. President Bush is no newcomer to the White House, and we wish him the best of luck! Arsenio Hall (immediate left) is another face of '89, appearing in movies such as Coming to America and hosting his own late night talk show. We said our farewells to Gilda Radner, who made her acting debut on Saturday Night Live as Lisa Loopner (bottom far left), Ayatollah Khomeini, the religious and civic leader of Iran, and Lucille Ball, who starred in several movies as well as her own television show I Love Lucy. One of the most amazing political events in 1989 was the destruction of the Berlin wall. For the first time since 1961 can East Germans move freely to the West! This momentous occasion set off a chain reaction in Eastern Europe, causing the Communist Bloc to open up. However, the situation in China worsened with the Tienanmen Square massacre of students protesting for freedom (page left). To the right is just one aspect of the physical and economical damage in South Carolina caused by Hurricane Hugo. There was also a tremendous amount of damage in Alaska when an Exxon Oil Tanker spilled thousands of gallons of oil, killing all sorts of wildlife (far right). Roseanne Barr and t.v. spouse John Goodman (below) created a stir in the television ratings this year, Roseanne becoming one of the most popular shows in the country. Batman, starring Michael Keaton and Jack Nicholson, was the number one movie of the year (middle right), and in the bottom right corner is anti-drug propaganda used by President Bush in the war on drugs. On a local level, '89 was no different from '79 and '69 in one respect — our beloved Flyer football team trampled Natick on Thanksgiving!

This decade has been full of great releases by fantastic artists. Pictures appear from left to right. D.J. Jazzy Jeff and the Fresh Prince, Bobby Brown, Expose, and New Kids On The Block have demonstrated their talent with funky new styles. Cher, on the other hand, has made a comeback with some top forty hits. Tracy Chapman brought about folk-style music that has created a new style. Becoming the only musician to expand the sound possibilities of the human voice, Bobby McFerrin made musical history this year. 10,000 Maniacs and Martika are newcomers to the chart as compared to Billy Joel, who has topped the charts for two decades and ended 1989 with a U.S. tour. Madonna came of age in the Eighties and has proved to be a woman of power.

The Who toured the world with sell out concerts. Likewise, Mick Jagger was a smash with his opening group, Living Color. Rap groups like LL Cool J came of age in the 1980's. Throughout the early Eighties, Bon Jovi captivated fans. Groups like Milli Vanilli, Debbie Gibson, and Fine Young Cannibals provided great dance songs, while artist Tom Petty polished his music. Neneh Cherry and Paula Abdul created tunes that are fun. Overall, the 1980's were filled with original and upbeat music!

T H E 1980's

As we say goodbye to '89, we also say goodbye to the decade. Mikhail Gorbachev, voted Man of the Year by Time magazine, has given the world a new chance for peace and a new term "glasnost". On the late night T.V. front, out went Johnny Carson and in came David Letterman, one of the most popular talk show hosts of the decade. Billy Crystal also stole female hearts in movies such as Running Scared and When Harry Met Sally. Jessica McClure became everyone's baby when the world waited for 58 hours in 1987 while she was trapped in a Texas well. Disasters struck many times this decade — the fires in Yellowstone Park, the eruption of Mt St Helen, and recently in '89 the San Francisco earthquake and hurricane Hugo in the Carolinas.

In 1989 we saved the whales that were trapped under ice. John Lennon's assassination was also commemorated. Abortion became a major issue as more cases came to court and both sides fought vehemently. Live-Aid, the concert heard around the world in 1983, raised eighty-four million for famine relief as did other groups such as Band-Aid and U.S.A. for Africa. Oliver North created a controversy with the Iran-Contra hearings. The debate heated up over nuclear weapons and nuclear power. This decade of extremes came to an end as the Berlin Wall came tumbling down and the boundaries of freedom expanded.
